

TAX LOCUM ON CALL

About Regan van Rooy

Established in 2016, our team consists of seasoned experts from the Big Four, dedicated to guiding you through all aspects of tax compliance, tax structuring, and tax planning. We provide clear, actionable answers tailored to your specific needs, ensuring swift and flexible delivery. With strategically located offices in South Africa, Mauritius, Ireland, and the UK, we combine local expertise with a global reach to address any tax challenge effectively.

We're not your usual advisory firm, and many of our team have "real life" in-house tax experience, so we understand the unique challenges facing tax teams and CFOs with the ever-increasing tax complexity and compliance requirements and often insufficient resources. That's why we have designed a special offering specifically to help you better manage your tax environment and to sleep better at night.

Tax Locum

Imagine having your very own tax bot. An experienced tax manager who can help you plug any tax gap quickly and efficiently. Whether you need an extra set of tax-savvy hands over year-end or tax submission season, or you have a vacant role in your team that's taking time to fill, we can help. We parachute in a tax manager with the right skills and experience for you who can start work immediately as part of your team to get things done now.

Our seasoned professionals are ready to step in to resolve any tax issue, bringing real solutions in real time.

We offer a comprehensive suite of services tailored to meet your needs:

Corporate tax and VAT compliance

Year-end pack
calculation or review

Employee and expatriate tax compliance and planning

Revenue audit management

Transfer pricing management or documentation updates

Tax project management and implementation

Adaptable To Your Needs

Our approach is highly flexible. We offer tailored support for various scenarios – from filling staff gaps during leave or a recruitment process, to managing year-end audits, restructuring projects, or implementing solutions to cater for new legislation.

Our team is here to help you better manage your tax environment so you can sleep better at night.
